The Curt Sachs Award

WHEREAS, he has earned outstanding eminence as a scholar, teacher, performer, and conductor in a long and distinguished career; and,

WHEREAS, his book, A History of Violin Playing from Its Origins to 1761, represents a contribution of unique importance to our knowledge of the instrument, combining penetrating scholarship with a performer's insight; and,

WHEREAS, as a pioneer working in the field of musical iconography, he has provided important leadership in the systematic collection and cataloging of pictorial documents relating to instruments;

THE AMERICAN MUSICAL INSTRUMENT SOCIETY hereby bestows the Curt Sachs Award, named for one of the founders of the modern, systematic study of musical instruments, upon

NEWSLETTER

EDITOR André P. Larson, University of South Dakota

The American Musical Instrument Society (AMIS) is an international organization founded in 1971 to promote the study of the history, design, and use of musical instruments in all cultures and from all periods.

ACTIVITIES AMIS holds annual meetings with symposia, papers, demonstrations, and performances of interest to members. Meetings have been held at the Smithsonian Institution; the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston; the University of Michigan; New York University; the University of South Dakota; Salem College; Yale University; the University of Chicago; the Metropolitan Museum of Art; the Vancouver Centennial Museum; Oberlin College; and the Henry Ford Museum.

PUBLICATIONS AMIS publishes the annual scholarly Journal and the Newsletter, issued three times annually, which provides the membership with information on worldwide activities, book lists and comments, and short articles of general interest.

MEMBERSHIP Membership in AMIS is open to both individuals and institutions. Dues are $20.00 annually (including institutions); dues for student membership are $10.00 (students must submit proof of current enrollment). All members receive the Journal and the Newsletter, as well as all mailings concerning the activities and organization of the Society. Checks, or bank drafts, payable in U.S. dollars through a U.S. bank to the American Musical Instrument Society, Inc., should be sent (along with a membership application for initial membership) to the AMIS Membership Office, USD Box 194, Vermillion, SD 57069.

FRIENDS Members who contribute $100 or more to the Society, in addition to their regular membership dues, receive special recognition in that year as Friends of the American Musical Instrument Society.
