The Journal is published annually by the American Musical Instrument Society, Inc. (AMIS), an international organization founded in 1971 to promote the study of the history, design, and use of musical instruments in all cultures and from all periods. Subscription to the Journal is obtained through membership in AMIS. For information, see the Organization and Membership section of this issue.

Contributions to the Journal should be submitted in clean typewritten copy, with all material—including block quotations and footnotes—double-spaced. Margins should be at least one inch on all sides. A justified right margin has no purpose in a typescript of this kind and even hinders the work of the editor. Recurring items such as footnotes, figures, musical examples, and tables should not be incorporated into the text, but should be presented on separate sheets. Photographs should be clear glossy prints (black and white). Authors should follow A Manual of Style, 12th ed. rev. (Chicago and London: University of Chicago Press, 1969), in all matters, especially footnote forms. Manuscripts and editorial inquiries should be sent to the editor-designate, Martha Maas, College Hall, Douglass College, Rutgers, The State University, New Brunswick, NJ 08903.

Publications for review should be addressed to the review editor-designate, Kenton T. Meyer, 2505 N. Gordon Court, Milwaukee, WI 53212.

Advertising and business matters should be addressed to the AMIS Membership Office, c/o The Shrine to Music Museum, 414 E. Clark, Vermillion, SD 57069.
