The Journal is published annually by the American Musical Instrument Society, Inc. (AMIS), an international organization founded in 1971 to promote the study of the history, design, and use of musical instruments in all cultures and from all periods. Subscription to the Journal is obtained through membership in AMIS. For information, see the Organization and Membership section of this issue.

Contributions to the Journal should be submitted not later than December 30 in clean type-written copy with one-inch margins on all sides. All material—including footnotes and block quotations—should be double or triple spaced. Footnotes, figures, musical examples, tables, and captions should be submitted on separate sheets; footnotes should contain complete bibliographical information. Photographs should be clear black-and-white glossy prints. Authors should follow A Manual of Style, 13th ed. (Chicago and London: University of Chicago Press, 1982).

Computer users are requested not to justify right margins and to use ten-pitch (wide) character spacing and large print, of letter quality if possible.

Manuscripts and editorial inquiries may be sent to the editor, Martha Maas, The Ohio State University School of Music, 1866 College Road, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

Publications for review should be addressed to the review editor, Kenton T. Meyer, Library, The Curtis Institute of Music, 1726 Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19103.

Advertising and business matters should be addressed to the Journal Advertising Manager, Margaret Downie Banks, AMIS Membership Office, c/o The Shrine to Music Museum, 414 E. Clark, Vermillion, S.D. 57069-2390.
